Department of Law

The Department of law, University of Mumbai is located on the first floor of the historical building of university of Mumbai, Fort Campus.

The Department was established in November 1959 for the purpose of imparting post graduate legal education and promote legal research.

The department has profoundly imparted interdisciplinary, analytical perspectives of legal education catering to the present demands of the society. The department has further succeeded in producing Academicians, lawyers of competence and expertise

Theme of the Conference

National assets such as Innovation and Creativity stand out as palpable competitive advantages in today's global economy. Well-tailored, robust IP protection hence becomes vital and inevitable to a nations prosperity and growth. IPR confers exclusive monopoly rights on its owner for a defined duration which leads to significant incentives for innovation In the current 21st century, that of an Intellectual regime, we have to be geared up to face differing opinions on stake holder's responsibilities in protection and application of these rights.

About the Conference

International Conference on Intellectual Property Law aims to bring together leading academic scientists, researchers and research scholars to exchange and share their experiences and research results about all aspects of Intellectual Property Law. It also provides the premier interdisciplinary forum for researchers, practitioners and educators to present and discuss the most recent innovations, trends, and concerns, practical challenges encountered and the solutions adopted in the field of Intellectual Property Law.
