Call for Papers: Mumbai Philosophy Research Scholars' Forum

The city of Mumbai has had a long and illustrious history of academic engagement with Philosophy over the years. The Mumbai Philosophy Research Scholars' Forum is an attempt to bring together research scholars working in different areas of Philosophy with different research and academic institutes of Mumbai and neighboring cities. It can act as a much-needed platform for M.Phil./PhD scholars as well as NET/SET/PET Qualified candidates eligible for M.Phil/PhD Admission in Philosophy from institutes like the Department of Philosophy (University of Mumbai), The Department of Humanities and Social Sciences (IIT- Bombay), S.P. Phule Pune University and many others to come together and share their ongoing research work with fellow scholars and faculty members from all over Mumbai and receive valuable feedback and comments for the same. With this aim, The Department of Philosophy, University of Mumbai will host the first meet for the forum where scholars can present papers on or related to their ongoing research by choosing from the following pool of broad themes:

1. What can we Know? - Debates in Epistemology: Indian and Western
2. Truth and Meaning: Issues in Philosophy of Language.
3. Theories of Interpretation.
4. State, Society and Morality.
5. Thinkers: Classical And Contemporary
6. Philosophy by Regions: The European Continent, The English-Speaking World, Oriental Philosophy, African Philosophy, etc.
7. Philosophical Logic.
8. Philosophy of the social sciences.
9. Philosophy of Science.
10. The History of Philosophy.
11. Broad themes in metaphysics.
12. Art and Aesthetics
13. Philosophy of Mind.
14. Contemporary Indian Philosophy.

Last Date for Submission of Abstracts: 20 March 2018. Max Word Limit: 500 Words.

Date for Meet : 27 March 2018. 11 A.M.-5 P.M. Registration Fee: 200 Rupees.

Please mail abstracts and/or other queries to : events.philosophy@gmail.com