80-20 Scheme of Examination -2015-16
M.Sc. Computer Science Part II -Yearly credit base pattern

Background:

1. M.Sc. Computer Science Part II has 4 subjects.

Theory Subjects	P1	P2	P3	P4
Maximum passing marks	75	75	75	75

Table1: Theory subjects

2. All theory papers mentioned above do have university conducted exams with defined marks as shown in table 1.

3. Every subject has a practical.

Practical	Pract1	Pract2	Pract3	Pract4
Maximum Marks	25	25	25	25

Table 2: Practical subjects

4. Project has 100 Marks.

5. All subject's practical are conducted by university (External exams).

80:20 scheme of examination

1. In a new scheme of 80:20% evaluations, every student is evaluated for 80% external examination (EX) and 20% internal examination (IN) for both, theory as well as practical.

Theory Subjects
P1		P2		P3		P4
75 marks		75 marks		75 marks		75 marks
Ex	IN	Ex	IN	Ex	IN	Ex	IN
60	15	60	15	60	15	60	15

Table 4: 80:20 marking Scheme for practical subjects

2. For project there is no internal component.

3. For Internals there is no minimum passing mark. Zero marks for internal evaluation are allowed in both theories as well as for practical.

4. There is an individual head of passing for theory as well as for practical.

5. Minimum passing marks for theory as well as for practical are 40%.

Subjects	P1	P2	P3	P4
Maximum Marks	75 marks	75 marks	75 marks	75 marks
Minimum passing marks	30	30	30	30

Table 5: Minimum passing in theory subjects in 80:20 scheme of examination

practical	Pract1	Pract1	Pract3	Pract4
Maximum Marks	25 marks	25 marks	25 marks	25 marks
Minimum passing marks	20	20	20	20

Table 6: Minimum passing in practical subject in 80:20 scheme of examination

	Project
Maximum Marks	100 marks
Minimum passing marks	40 marks

Table 7: Minimum passing in Project in 40% scheme of examination

6. For project minimum passing marks are 40.

7. If student fails in any theory subject or practical, he/she has to clear only those theory or practical component in next attempt. No group passing.

8. In case "University examination" is conducted for 75 marks then the marks are to be converted to 60 and are to be credited to the "External" marks component of the total evaluation.

9. Grace marks for passing in each head of passing (theory / practical) is same as that of existing ORDINANCE.

10. Ordinance 5042, 5043, 5044, and 5045 will be applicable.

Submission of mark sheet to Exam house by IDOL:

1. Internal mark sheet of all theory subjects (Four subjects)

2. Internal marks of all practical subjects (Four subjects)
