

Time: 02 Hrs

Marks: 60

N.B. 1. All questions are compulsory.

2. All questions carry EQUAL marks.

Q.1. Explain the role and significance of Environmental Ethics.

Or

Q.1. Elaborate on Holmes Rolston III's notion of 'naturalization of values'.

Q. 2. Discuss in detail the key features of Biocentricism that makes it different from Anthropocentricism.

Or

'Having accepted the principle of equality as a sound moral basis for relations with others of our own species, we are also committed to accepting it as a sound moral basis for relations with those outside our own species - the nonhuman animals'. In the view of the above statement discuss Peter Singer's approach to animal rights.

Q 3. Elaborate on the ontological belief that underlines the principles of Ecocentric Ethics.

Or

Q.3. Critically discuss the views of Arne Naess on Deep Ecology.

Q.4. Discuss in detail the views of Karen Warren on ecofeminism.

Or

Q.4. Discuss critically Murray Bookchin's view that nearly all our present ecological problems arise from deep-seated social problems.
