Circular :-

The Principals of the affiliated colleges in Law are hereby informed that while forwarding the applications of students for declaration of results which are kept in reserved due to non-clearance of their lower examination or any amendment in the result it has been observed that, the Xerox copies of the marksheets sent alongwith their applications are not attested by the college and hence this office finds it difficult to ascertain the genuineness of the marksheets submitted by the students without attestation.

They are therefore requested to bring this to the notice of concerned candidates and should ensure that all the marksheets enclosed alongwith applications for declaration of results or any amendment in the are to be attested by the Principal so as to take further necessary action.

Further candidates be informed that no action will be taken on their application if the marksheets are not attested by the Principal.
