

Dear Students,

Welcome and Congratulations on your acceptance to IDOL's PGDFM 2019-2020 batch. We are thrilled that you will be joining our IDOL family!

As a new student at IDOL, you are bound to have questions. Hence, we will arrange an Induction Lecture soon. Unfortunately, it is not possible to schedule it in the coming weekend because I and other professors are on election duty.

However, that should not delay your other lectures and hence, I have scheduled your 1st PCP lecture for this Sunday.

Our PCP lectures' journey starts from 20th October, 2019 and a 4-hour long lecture on Accounting System by Prof. Mitesh Parmar has been organized for the day.

Time Table for 20th October, 2019 (Sunday)

	Venue	Timings
PCP Lecture on Accounting System	Room No. 208, 2 nd Floor, Dr. Shankar Dayal Sharma Bhavan, (IDOL Building) Vidyanagari, Kalina, Santacruz East, Mumbai- 400098	09:00 am – 01:00 pm

We are looking forward to start this learning journey with you and appreciate your interest in it. Don't hesitate to e-mail me if you face any problems related to the course.

All the best!

Regards,

Anitha Menon
