

Indian Diaspora Centre

मुंबई विद्यापीठ
University of Mumbai

Constructions of Home and Belonging Indian Diaspora Centre

And

Centre for African Studies

Invites you to a Talk by

Pheroze Nowrojee

On

Issues in East African Diasporic Writing

Date: 16th August, 2017 Time: 12.30 to 1.30 p.m.

Venue: Indo Canadian Studies Centre, Room 49, Ranade Bhavan, Kalina Campus, Mumbai 400 098

Pheroze Nowrojee born in Nairobi, is a leading human rights lawyer, poet and writer, who over many decades has been an influential part of the political and social movements for constitutional and social change in Kenya. He is the author A Kenyan Journey (2014), Dukawala and Other Stories (2017), Pio Gama Pinto: Patriot for Social Justice (2007) and A Vote for Kenya: The Elections and the Constitution (2013).

Professor Dr. Nilufer E. Bharucha, Director CoHaB IDC

Director Centre for African Studies

RSVP: cohabidc@gmail.com