

Department of Philosophy, University of Mumbai

offers

One year Part time Certificate Course in Indian Aesthetics

This course aims at exposing students to a range of aesthetic theories in the Indian and Western traditions. It also proposes to show the practical roots of these theories by illustrating their applications in diverse art forms such as painting, sculpture, architecture, dance and music.

The course contents include :

- The nature of aesthetics, its relation to philosophy and literature: Indian and Western traditions
- The concept of Rasa and Dhvani and its extension to music, dance and drama
- Modern Western Aesthetics
- Contemporary Indian Aesthetics
- The Vedic and Upanishadic World Views
- Tantric and Kashmir Shaivism World Views
- The Buddhist World View
- The Jaina World View
- The Bhakti World View
- Islamic and Sufi World Views
- Folk Art Traditions

Eligibility : HSC or its Equivalent in any stream (arts or science or commerce)

Timings : Saturdays between 2.00 p.m. to 6.00 p.m.

Fees : Rs 2800/-

Contact : Shilpa Chheda - 9323980615
shilpachheda1@gmail.com