

University of Mumbai

Department of Philosophy
cordially invites you, your colleagues and students to a

WORKSHOP

on

From Nagarjuna to Dharmakirti: Buddhist Logic & Epistemology (Under Buddhist Studies: New Initiatives)

conducted by

Dr. Meenal Katarnikar

Associate Professor,
Department of Philosophy, University of Mumbai

from

February 1, 2017 to February 4, 2017

Theme: This workshop aims at introducing students, teachers and research scholars to the development of later Buddhist logic and epistemology. It begins by mapping Nagarjuna's key contribution and his critique of traditional pramanas. It proceeds to examine Dinnaga's advent with reference to his theory of pramanas and his debate with Naiyayikas. It subsequently explores Dharmakirti's contribution and concludes with a critical review. Reference material will be provided for in-depth text reading and discussion.

Time: 2.00 p.m. to 5.30 p.m (with a 30 minute break)

Venue: Department of Philosophy, University of Mumbai, Kalina Campus

Contact: deptofphil@hotmail.com for registration details.

Registration Fee: Rs.200.00 (to cover photocopy and certificate costs)

Last Date for Registration: January 27, 2017