

University of Mumbai

Press Note

Date: 17-03-2014

UoM Aid for rain-hit Maharashtra

The University of Mumbai has announced aid for Maharashtra where unseasonal rains wreaked havoc causing damage to crops. Honbl ,Vice Chancellor Dr. Rajan Welukar, Pro-Vice Chancellor Dr. Nareshchandra, Registrar Dr. M.A.Khan, Director BCUD Princi. Dr.Rajpal Hande, Controller Of Examination Dr. Padma Deshmukh, Finance officer Ashok Phalnikar and Deputy Registrar, Asst. Registrar will give their one day salary of the month of March. Apart from workers Union also has been aid to rain-hit farmers, the circular will issue soon.

In Maharashtra, standing crops like wheat, jowar, pulses, sunflower suffered extensive damage due to hailstorm for over days in many parts of the state. Crops in more than eight lakh hectares in Maharashtra has been damaged by untimely rain and hailstorm in some parts of the state.

The hailstorms- affected people in various parts of Marathwada, Vidarbha and in some parts of western Maharashtra, where crops have been hit.

Leeladhar Bansod

Deputy Registrar (PR)