

University of Mumbai

Press note

Date-13th January, 2015

Mumbai- To impart scientific knowledge of 'Lokakala', to create the academic ambience in folk art field and to encourage the professionalism in Performing 'Lokakala' Maharashtra Government will take forward the 'Lokakala'and 'Loksanskriti' in a worldwide. said,Higher and Technical Education minister, Vinod Tawde.

The programme was organized by the Lokakala Academy, Shahir Amarshekh Adhyasan and Western region Cultural Centre, Udaipur in the presence of expert dignitaries, the renowned singer Sulochana chavan.

University of Mumbai will establish the network for the Lokakala academy to the nation level. that to create the powerful link between traditional approach and innovative approach . As the whole Lokkala academy students from all states will get interconnected and come under one roof and can do the more research on it for the cultural arena to spread the worldwide said, Honorable Vice Chancellor, Dr. Rajan Welukar.

He added,To prepare students to exploit opportunities in the field of Performing Folk Arts, Folk Performances Administration, Folk Research and exploit the possibilities, will develop the 'Lokakala' and 'Lokasanskriti.'

Leeladhar Bansod, Deputy Registrar, (PR)