

Q.P-code 5262g

1

Indian Literature in English

SYBA Semester IV ATKT October 2018

Time: 3 hours

Total Marks: 100

Guidelines for assessment /Solution/ Answer Key

1. a and b) Students to be awarded marks for an in-depth analysis of the essayist, the essay and a detailed summary of the aspect of Indian Literature in English that the essay and the question focuses on.

-The learner must show familiarity with the essayist's work and contribution to Indian writing in English-Marks to be deducted for a generalised answer which doesn't focus on the question or for answers that do not follow the essay format, especially if the entire answer is in point form. Marks are also to be deducted for poor grammar, spelling and presentation.

(20 marks)

c. Students attempting the short notes must focus on critical aspects of the terms/ concepts tested.

-Marks to be deducted for a generalised answer.

(2X10= 20 marks)

2. a and b) Students to necessarily refer to the play and its aspects as specified in the question.

-The learner must show familiarity with the various nuances of the play attempted

-Quotations from the play and from critics to be encouraged

-Marks to be deducted for a generalised answer which doesn't focus on the question or for answers that do not follow the essay format, especially if the entire answer is in point form. Marks are also to be deducted for poor grammar, spelling and presentation.

-Marks to be deducted for providing a simple, uncritical summary of the play

(20 marks)

3. a and b) Students to provide a theme-based critical analysis of the poems prescribed

Marks to be deducted for providing a simple, uncritical paraphrase of the poem or its aspects

(20 marks)

4. a and b) Short notes to focus specifically on the aspect of the play on which the question is based-

(2X10=20marks)

2

5. a and b) Short notes to focus specifically on the aspect of the poem on which the question is based (2X10= 20 marks)

Suggested Marking Scheme:

Anywhere between 12 and 17 for an excellent analytical answer with impeccable presentation and evidence of research at the discretion of the examiner.

Between 9 and 11 for a good attempt with stray errors in presentation.

Between 7 and 8 for a sincere attempt but riddled with grammatical and spelling errors.

Between 4 and 6 for a mere plot summary cursorily written with no presentation skills.

Between 1 and 3 (or a zero) at the discretion of the examiner for an attempt that shows barely any evidence of study

*****