

N.B. 1. Answer all questions.

2. All questions carry equal marks

1. a) Define the term 'research' and discuss its various features.

Or

b) State the meaning and sources of hypothesis and explain its significance in research.

2. a) Discuss different methods of collection of Primary and secondary data.

Or

b) Comment on the elements of Clarity, Correctness, and Coherence in the language of research.

3. a) Discuss various methods and their significance in the research carried out in the field of language.

Or

b) Explain new trends and approaches in literary research.

4. a) Discuss in detail various stages in the selection of research topic.

Or

b) Draft a research proposal on any area of language or literature of your interest.
