Limerick, 23 April 2014

Dear Prof. Bhoot,

I would herewith like to confirm that your conference paper "Zur Frage der Identität an einem Nicht-Ort in Friedrich Dürrenmatts Der Tunnel" has been included in the programme for „Begegnungen in Transiträumen / Transitorische Begegnungen“, International Conference of the Association of Intercultural German Studies (GiG), hosted by the Irish Centre for Transnational Studies at Mary Immaculate College, from 29 May-1 June 2014.

Over 100 participants from Europe, Asia, Africa, North America and Australia will explore transit spaces and movement in German-language literary and digital texts, film and other media, and in the language classroom at this major international conference. Selected papers will be published by Peter Lang in the series Cross-Cultural Communication. The conference is supported by the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD), the Goethe-Institut Irland, the German, Austrian and Swiss Embassies, Fáilte Ireland, the Centre for Irish-German Studies, University of Limerick, the Department of German Studies, An tOifigeach Gaeilge, and the Research & Graduate School, Mary Immaculate College. For further detail see <http://www.ictstudies.eu/internationale-tagung-der-gesellschaft-fur-interkulturelle-germanistik-gig/>.

We are looking forward to welcoming you in Limerick.

Kind regards,

Dr. Sabine Egger
