

Prof. Rambhau M. Badode
M.A., Ph.D.
Director

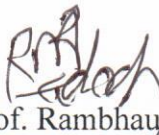

Confucius Institute of
University of Mumbai
Kalina Campus,
Santacruz (East),
Mumbai- 400 098. (India)

Reaccredited by NAAC with 'A' Grade

Confucius Institute at University of Mumbai

The Confucius Institute at University of Mumbai is established as per the agreement signed between the University of Mumbai and Tianjin University of Technology, China in July 2013 to promote better understanding and cooperation between India and China through Cultural exchanges, 'Learning Chinese language (Mandarin) martial arts, (Wushu) calligraphy and painting, exchanges of faculty and students. Ms. Gao, Vice Dean of school of Chinese language and culture, Mr. Liu, Calligraphy, Mr. Wu, martial arts champion visited the university to celebrate Confucius Institute Day on 19th December, 2014. Confucius Institute day function was inaugurated by Hon. Vice Chancellor, Dr. Rajan Welukar, Pro-Vice Chancellor, Dr. Naresh Chandra was also invited as Guest of honor for the various activities organized on 19th December, 2014. More than 100 students participated in various workshops conducted in learning Mandarin Language, Wushu (Martial arts), Calligraphy and painting.

Director, Confucius Institute, Prof. Rambhau M. Badode participated in the Global Confucius Institute Conference held at Xiamen, China on 7th – 9th December, 2014 and discussed future plans and projects to be undertaken at the institute of the University.

Prof. Rambhau Badode
DIRECTOR, Confucius Institute,
University of Mumbai